

Canadian Taxpayers

London Business School is one of the recognised charities under Canadian Income Tax regulations. Donations made in support of the School will qualify for income tax deduction of Canadian taxpayers.

There are no special gift forms for donations from Canadian taxpayers, but general gift forms are available from the Development Office at the School.

Cash gifts to London Business School from Canadian taxpayers can be received in Canadian Dollars or British Pounds. All Canadian gifts will be receipted for tax-purpose.

For any further questions regarding making a tax effective gift to London Business School please contact the Development Office by email at development@london.edu or by phone on +44 (0)20 7000 7244.

N.B. Individual circumstances may vary, and any figures quoted are for illustration only and do not represent financial advice. Please consult your tax advisor for specific information.