

Staying at London Business School

London Business School is located on Regent's Park, and about five minutes walk from Baker Street Underground station. Baker Street is served by the Bakerloo, Jubilee, Metropolitan, Circle and Hammersmith & City lines.

From the station, walk along Baker Street (against the one-way traffic), towards the junction of Baker Street and the Outer Circle of Regent's Park. Bear left. The second block of buildings is London Business School.

Library

The London Business School Library is one of the most comprehensive of its kind in Europe.

It contains 20,000 books covering all aspects of management and business, over 1,000 periodicals including more than 200 statistical publications, and annual reports from the world's major listing companies. The library is in great demand from external users as well as our own students and staff.

Catering

We pride ourselves on the high standard of our catering, offering a choice of menu for breakfast, lunch and dinner on some courses as well as food outlets catering for all in the School. Vegetarians and other special dietary requirements can be catered for.

Shopping

Blackwell's Bookshop is on site and there are several other stores nearby. Oxford Street and West End shopping are only 10 minutes away by Underground or Bus.

There is an HSBC Automatic Teller Machine within London Business School and there are branches of all major UK banks within 5 minutes walk of the School.
