Hybrid learning - Choose between completing the programme on campus or live virtually.

Face-to-face or live virtual sessions with faculty follow a specific course timetable, typically 5 days long. Access 40 hours of live learning with our leading faculty.

Experience the simultaneous delivery of learning both on campus and virtually in a seamless, interactive and collaborative format. Join experiential activities, collaborative group work with your peers and interact with faculty and guest speakers for real time impact.

Build personal connections with your classmates – either on campus or virtually in real time.

Virtual participants will also have the opportunity to live the London experience by joining us on campus for an exclusive day of networking with like-minded professionals and learning from the latest thinking of our world-class faculty.

“The amount of detail and planning that LBS have placed on hybrid learning really impressed me. Doing the programme live virtually, I was able to follow, contribute and participate to group sessions as if I was physically there.”

Live virtual - Join our world-class faculty live from anywhere in the world and learn alongside a global cohort.

Live virtual learning spanning 5-10 days. Access 40 hours of live learning with our leading faculty.

Join our programmes live from anywhere in the world and experience a highly interactive virtual classroom accessing faculty and industry leading guest speakers.

Join virtual experiential activities, collaborative group work exercises, and access dedicated coaching for real time impact.

Come together with your peers from around the world to share your experiences, challenge your thinking and collaborate on group tasks and experiential activities.

You'll also have the opportunity to reinforce your learning by joining us on campus in the near future for an exclusive day, featuring the latest thinking from our world-class faculty and networking with like-minded professionals.

“The sessions have been very interactive – everyone can contribute and that makes it a richer experience. I honestly think that I've learned more learning virtually than being in the room.”

Online courses - Join a digital classroom from anywhere in the world.

Short live online programmes: Access short bursts of learning with live faculty interaction and self-directed activities.

Carefully curated, self-paced content over 3–4 weeks including nine hours of live online faculty sessions.

Access real-time simulations, guided reflections, assessments, role-play, curated videos and suggested readings at a pace that suits you.

Experience a digital classroom with group work and discussion forums to consolidate your learning with a global cohort.

“I got everything I needed from the online format and faculty were incredibly engaging.”

Self-paced online learning: Access exclusive pre-recorded programme content and study at a pace that suits you with the support of a dedicated learning manager.

Self-paced learning to suit your schedule over the course of 5–12 weeks.

Learn from industry experts through videos, curated content, assignments and - on select courses - live faculty sessions.

Connect and reinforce your learnings with an exceptional group of peers from around the world with discussion forums and live chat during webinars.
